

Go out

Allow access to your CRM

Before starting the synchronization, it is necessary to allow access to your CRM data

The connection APIs are the official ones for each CRM.

This connection does not imply changes to your CRM, it is only a data gateway.

The new data you create will be synchronized on both sides if you authorize it each time.

Configure access